TITUSVILLE, PA.

A WHOLE FAMILY POISONED—TWO OF THE CHILDREN DEAD.—A correspondent writing, from Wheatland, Mercer county, Pa., gives the following particulars of a sad case of poisoning which occurred at that place on Saturday last:

Henry Harkles, his wife and three small children, while out walking last Sunday evening saw in the field what they supposed to be mushrooms. They gathered them plentifully, took them home and ate them for supper. They proved to be what is sometimes called "toad-stools," a rank poison. The two youngest children, both bright, intelligent little girls, one about three and the other about six years of age, died on Thursday—the oldest at 10:15, and the youngest at 11:45, only thirty minutes apart. The balance of the family are highly respected here, and members of the M. E. Church of this place. Allis being done by their many friends to save the father and mother and little boy. I will advise you if they should be taken away.

John Griffin was hanged in Hamilton Friday afternoon for the murder of Ulah Prickett, protesting innocent to the last. He charged Joe Kelley with the murder for which he himself hung.
